memo from

ART KEVIN

11/11/68

Dear Harold:

Two items that I send along:

a followup to the strange story of Mr. Putt, and, a copy of that news story I sought and couldn't find when you and Charlie Brown were here re: Garrison, Mckiethen and some sort of Mafia hanky-pankie.

I have been calling Hemming(Patrick) all weekend with your message but as of yet no one answers.

I heard from Schecter shortly after you left. He seemed kind of doubtful about what Hemming or Howard could tell due to their background but said he would listen anyway if they called.

I tried to follow down and get a pix that Mrs. Oswald was takling about only to find that no paper, no wire service carried since Mrs. O wanted to sell it. I think it underscores your theory of what photo she was talking about.

Regards,

AK
